

CHIEF DETECTIVE MITCHELL SANG

Unsolved Cases Club, National Chapter Investigator-in-Chief

INTRODUCTIONS

Hello everyone. I'm Detective Mitchell Sang from the National Chapter of the Unsolved Cases Club.

Your Roseville Chapter President FIDDYMENT, invited me here tonight to review with you the unsolved local mystery known as

- Case #38 – The Missing Persons Case of Wayne Charles Wright. Seems the local police department has asked our club to review this case and write up an investigative report of our findings.

It is July 22, 1969 at (TIME), and at the behest of President FIDDYMENT, I call this meeting of the Unsolved Cases Club to order.

Here with me tonight, in addition to you fine, upstanding citizens and local experts, are guest experts, both local and national, including:

Dr. Felicity Kendal, a Doctor of Psychology also from the National Chapter. We find her insights very helpful in understanding both the criminal element and the psychology of the victim. Dr. Kendal?

(pause for Dr. Kendal)

Alrighty, then, that's enough of that!

And local reporter, Arthur S. Wainwright. He broke the news of Wayne Charles Wright's disappearance back in 1964.

Say a couple words, Wainwright.

(pause for Arthur Wainwright)

That's more than a couple, thank you.

And our final guest tonight is the local police officer who I'm told knows the most about this case, officer Barney Mayberry. Officer Mayberry? Officer Mayberry! Perhaps you may share with us your relationship to this case?

(pause for Mayberry)

We are the team that will walk you through Case #38. The disappearance of Wayne Charles Wright.

TO DO:

- Order the others to pass out the leaflet about you all to the tables.
- Explain you will be both providing information to the club members as well as extracting information from them periodically.
- Review “National Chapter’s protocol” (elements slide) for crime solving that you intend to use tonight with this local chapter.
- Work in the phrase. “Yesterday, Neil Armstrong walked on the moon. If we can put a man on the moon, we can solve this case!”

CASE SUMMARY – TO DO:

- Order the others to pass out the case summary.
- Ensure the case summary is read.

Field Info Summary Report (backside of Case Summary)

- Ask Officer Mayberry why there was not follow up.
- Ask if there was anything else of note that happened around the time of this disappearance. (Officer Barney: Centennial. Reporter: McGinty death.)

MOTIVES – TO DO:

- Discuss methodically the possible motives with the room and the other team experts. (General discussion)

SUSPECT PROFILES: TO DO:

- Order the others to pass out the Suspect Profiles as you review each one with the room & team.
 - Ask Officer Mayberry about A. Schreiber and Casey Jones photos.
- Option: take “raise hand” poll – who is your current chief suspect?
- Ask tables to discuss theories of the case, team to assist.
 - Missing or Murdered?
 - Who is chief suspect? What is the motive?
- Bring the team back to report on the various tables’ theories
- YOU (Detective) comment on their contributions.

WITNESSES & EVIDENCE – TO DO:

- Have team pass out the EVIDENCE pages
 - Review each piece of evidence with the room
- Walk through the evidence for each MOTIVE
 - TAKEN. Evidence of ransom request? Leverage applied related to disappearance? No. Eliminate TAKEN.
 - SUICIDE. Ask Dr. Kendal - missing man's state of mind.
 - Any evidence of depression, suicidal ideation?
 - No, eliminate suicide.
 - IN HIDING. Due to
 - Financial issues: evidence? NO
 - Family issues: evidence? – NO
 - Career: evidence? NO
 - No, eliminate in hiding
 - This means the only viable solutions for the case are all now related to homicide.
 - CHANGE THE SLIDE to MURDER. READ THE SLIDE.
 - "MURDER at The HOTEL BELVEDERE"

Actors react in unison.

EVIDENCE – Review Witness Summaries

- Dolores or Pearl
- Mary Wright (or her brother)
- Land dispute outside Owl Club w A. Schreiber
- Union / Railroad dispute
- Promotion dispute

Ask for ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE gathered after Thursday, May 21, 1964:

- Reporter Wainwright. Police records show Casey Jones was blotto and in the drunk tank by 9 PM on Friday, May 15.
- Office Mayberry. According to Frank Vincent, Ervin Wilson was at the Owl Club until closing (2 a.m.) then poured into a cab. Driver took Ervin to his hotel in Sacramento (cabbie assisted bellboy, put Mr. Wilson on a rolling luggage cart. Saw cart go into elevator as cabbie left.

- Reporter Wainwright. After Wayne Wright died, the money for the land was returned to the widow Mary Wright. Says he doesn't know who ended up buying the land in 1964, but it's been developed into several neighborhoods of single family housing.

INVESTIGATIVE REPORT – Recommendations and Possible Solution for Case #38

Detective Sang:

- Summation – with help from audience. Get their agreement.
- Only Suspect not eliminated is A. Schreiber.
- What was his motive?
- Land investment in Rocklin.
- Ask locals, Officer Mayberry & Report for A. Schreiber's location.
- Schreiber's current location is unknown.

DETECTIVE SANG SAVES THE DAY: An 11th Hour Confrontation and a Confession.

DET: Really? Does anyone speak German in here? Poll Audience.
(Schreiber means scribe / writer.)

A writer.

DR. FELICITY KENDAL: Arthur S. Wainwright – what is your middle name???

OFC MAYBERRY: turns Schreiber around and takes off his hat. Ah HAH!

REPORTER ARTHUR SCHREIBER WAINWRIGHT admits all, tells all.

DET SANG: Asks where the body is buried.

REPORTER: explains.

DET SANG: I shall not arrest you. However, we all shall file our Investigative Report. It will be left up to the local authorities to determine if they wish to proceed. But it is not my jurisdiction.

BARNEY: It is MY jurisdiction (Barney Mayberry arrests the reporter)

BARNEY: “If we can put a man on the moon, surely we can solve this case.”

ALL: We just did!!!

BARNEY: OH, right.

DET SANG. Thank you for your hospitality, Roseville, and good night!

Roseville Historical Society – identify, use and play with these audience members in particular!

- President: Denise Fiddymment
- Vice President: Kathleen Crane
- Secretary: Phoebe Astill
- Treasurer: Robert Powell
- Directors at Large:
 - Dolly Fiddymment, Eric Fiddymment, Jeanne Lindberg, Dale Mellberg, Richard Roccucci, Andrew Roper