

DR. FELICITY KENDAL, Psychologist
Unsolved Cases Club, National Chapter
Psychologist in Residence

INTRODUCTIONS

DETECTIVE SANG performs introductions.

Here with me tonight, in addition to you fine, upstanding citizens and local experts, are guest experts, both local and national, including:

Dr. Felicity Kendal, a Doctor of Psychology also from the National Chapter. We find her insights very helpful in understanding both the criminal element and the psychology of the victim. Dr. Kendal?

TO DO:

- Introduce yourself, your relationship to missing persons and criminal cases
- Pass out the team leaflet to all tables.

CASE SUMMARY – TO DO:

- Pass out the case summary.
- Anything of note that happened around the time of this disappearance?
 - Barney: Centennial.
 - Reporter: Tell the story of Mrs. McGinty's death.

MOTIVES – TO DO:

- Add to the discussion of motives

SUSPECT PROFILES: TO DO:

- Pass out the Suspect Profiles
- Assist tables in theory discussion.
 - Missing or Murdered?
 - Who is chief suspect? Motive?
- Report on the various tables' theories

WITNESSES & EVIDENCE – TO DO:

- Have team pass out the EVIDENCE pages
 - Review each piece of evidence with the room
- Walk through the evidence for each MOTIVE
 - SUICIDE. Ask Dr. Kendal - missing man's state of mind.
 - Dr. Kendal discusses evidence as to state-of-mind.
 - Any evidence of depression, suicidal ideation?
 - No, eliminate suicide.
 - IN HIDING. NO
 - CHANGE THE SLIDE to MURDER.
DETECTIVE READS THE SLIDE.
 - "MURDER at The HOTEL BELVEDERE"

Actors react in unison.

EVIDENCE – Review Witness Summaries

- Ask questions, or answer any questions put to you about the evidence or witnesses.

Detective asks for ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE gathered after Thursday, May 21, 1964:

- Reporter Wainwright. Casey Jones
- Office Mayberry. Ervin Wilson
- Reporter Wainwright. Land.
- DR. FELICITY KENDAL may ask questions of Reporter & Officer.
- DR. KENDAL SAYS: “with this additional evidence, if we can put a man on the moon, surely we can solve this case!”

INVESTIGATIVE REPORT – Recommendations and Possible Solution for Case #38

Support DETECTIVE in summation.

DETECTIVE SANG SAVES THE DAY: An 11th Hour
Confrontation and a Confession.

Really?

Does anyone speak German in here? Poll

Audience.

(Schreiber means scribe / writer.)

A writer.

DR. FELICITY KENDAL: Arthur S. Wainwright – what is your middle name???

REPORTER ARTHUR SCHREIBER WAINWRIGHT admits all, tells all.

DET SANG: Ask where the body is buried.

REPORTER: explains.

DET: ... left up to the local authorities to determine if they wish to proceed. It is not my jurisdiction.

BARNEY: It is MY jurisdiction (Barney Mayberry arrests the reporter.)

BARNEY: “If we can put a man on the moon, surely we can solve this case.”

ALL (except Barney): We just did!!!

BARNEY: OH, right.

DET SANG. Thank you for your hospitality, and good night!
