Tamraloo Studios, Lincoln, CA

About Tamie Rogers

Tamra Rogers was born and raised in the Bay Area, then spent 18 years in the beautiful Pacific Northwest before coming back “home” to California. Miss Tamie holds a Bachelor of Arts in Music from William Jessup University. She has taught piano and voice for over 30 years, and currently owns and operates Tamraloo Studios, voted Lincoln and Sacramento’s Best Music Instruction 6 years in a row. She also serves as CEO and Artistic Director of The Stage, a 501c3 non profit theatre company.

Tamie's Experience

An accomplished collaborative pianist, choral conductor, vocal coach and music director, Miss Tamie has accompanied multiple church, community, and university choirs, as well as conducted children’s and adult choruses in both the Pacific Northwest and Northern California and coached vocalists all over the area. She most recently lent her talents onstage as Judy Bernley in RCT’s production of 9 to 5 and as Musical Director offstage for William Jessup’s production of The Secret Garden (2021), The Wizard of Oz (2022) and Jessup’s upcoming 2023 production of The Music Man.

Tamie's Awards, Honors and Service to the Community

She is a multiple SARTA Elly award winner, for both her musical direction and performance roles. She also carols professionally as a Soprano in the Merrie Olde Christmas Carolers. Tamie is passionate about community service and has served as president of her local PTA, women's ministry, and currently serves as music coordinator over the Lincoln/Loomis area LDS congregations.

Tamie's Role at Tamraloo Studios

As head of Tamraloo Studios, Tamie trains, mentors, and coordinates studio schedules for all her teachers, as well as maintains a current roster of over 80 personal and group students. But Tamie acknowledges that her greatest blessings in life are her four incredible children and superhero husband.
